While organising the papers, Isabel couldn't help noticing their content. She closed the office door and read them thoroughly. She became alarmed: what she had in her hands was the plan for a conspiracy to seize control of the State.

Chance turns Isabel, secretary to the most important banker in the country, into the heroine who sets up a resistance network which will confront the powerful of this world: corrupt politicians controlled by bankers at the service of obscure interests ready to sell Spain to the highest bidder.

A Spain which is not exactly the one we know, but which resembles it in every way, is the board on which this exciting game will be played, narrated in the unmistakable style of one of the most individual creators of our times. Publishing rights available from Company: ESPASA LIBROS S.L.
