The ghost of a woman who flows through Jaime's veins has fallen in love with her creator, and has an unusual wish: to wake up. Her passionate proposal shatters the fabulous Fantasy World, where imaginary beings recreated by humanity live together in chimeric balance. Meanwhile, Jaime's life moves from his turbulent university years to the placid present. Waking Up is a novel of contrasts: brutal and authentic, uninhibited and dreamlike, romantic and erotic. A perfect collage that brings together an irreverent and tender sense of humour/horror. A collage solidly supported by a juggling structure that keeps the reader constantly guessing right up to the last page.

Additional information Prizes and reviews:

A book with unexpected twists, which brings fiction and reality together in an entertaining way, and which has a double ending which leaves a great aftertaste. (El País 2/5/12).
