Collection of short stories, in which the author focuses her attention on a series of female characters who, for various reasons, are accompanying someone on a journey that at first does not concern them, but which gives rise to episodes that reveal something of who they are and the relationship they have with their travelling partner. Inside these dreamy, restless, fearful women, the reader will discover a strange determination, an odd stubbornness to be themselves and will share in those moments of intense happiness we all expect from a journey. Far from the scenes of our daily life, one can sense the dark shadow of neglect, but also the gentle/soft glow of freedom.
