Spanish football has provided the greatest joy in 44 years, and now they daringly disclose the secrets of their success. In this book, La Roja reveal their little known and more personal side. Confidences, memories, anecdotes and sensations from a team which is a gang of friends. The squad invite us into the changing room to hear Aragonés' memorable pep talks and Del Bosque's plans for the South African campaign.

Enter the players' rooms to laugh at their rivalry playing cards, at their wittiest nicknames and at the results of the sweepstake. Discover the soundtrack that accompanies them in their finest moments, the jokes that they play on the pitch, and the way that they overcome difficulties and make the world fall in love with their football. From the inside, with sincerity, and with the desire to share the pride that comes with being part of this team.
