If you haven't yet thought about what you want to be when you grow up, use your imagination! You might be trying to choose between teaching the alphabet or curing grown-ups and children. A title in the "Oroneta" collection, composed of 10 stories that use fun and ingenuity to introduce young readers to everyday concepts in their world. The human body, the seasons, plants and animals, inventions, jobs, the city and many other topics are presented in a child-friendly manner through Carmen Gil's texts, full of inventiveness and musicality. Sensitive, full-colour illustrations by top illustrators.
