A fantasy novel filled with action and adventure, in which, finally, the good fairies die out. The Court of Mirrors is the capital and heart of TerraLinde (BoundaryLand), a kingdom where the fairies don't believe in humans. It is an old city that played a central role in the War of the Sleeping Beauty. Years have passed since that gory conflict, which was followed by a fragile peace, a long list of grievances and a weak throne. It is the home of Nicasia and Dujal, who have spent years embroiled in the webs of power. The murder of Dujal's tutor and Nicasia's companion in arms forces them to unite to find the guilty parties. Together they investigate the murder, hounded by the long shadow of the mysterious Dama RecorreTúneles (Lady TunnelCrosser) and Nicasia's well-kept secrets.
