There was once a kingdom far, far away where a prince rewarded a wizard for helping rescue a young lady in distress. Enchanting. It's a shame that none of this is true. In reality, the prince dreams of glory and revenge, the wizard that his spells aren't always disasters, and the young lady in distress of getting away from a past that torments her... and from the memory of the man she has killed. Once upon a time...

"A different, perceptive and very well written novel. It will leave readers open-mouthed." Blue Jeans, best-selling author of "El club de los incomprensidos". "A fantastic story about the danger of love, the fragility of innocence and the desire for power that won't leave a single reader unimpressed." Javier Ruescas - Book Trailer:
