A devastating hurricane ravages the city of Mainauni. Three young homeless men and childhood friends, San, Ibo and Tayil, decide to take advantage of the chaos in the days after the disaster to loot the abandoned houses. San, the leader, is convinced of the success of his plan, and Tayil, obedient as always, supports him. But Ibo begins to think that another kind of life might be possible for him. His encounter with Adamia will become a turning point in his uprooted existence... A story of friendship and love in a desperate, marginalized environment where violence attempts to lay down the law.
