Laila Winter is a sixteen-year-old girl with a small problem: she has green hair. This is the reason everyone rejects her and makes fun of her. At the start of the summer, on her birthday, her father gives her a very special present: a book with five gems on its cover that belonged to her mother and which conceals a mystery in its white pages. This mysterious book is the key to Solaire, the kingdom of five suns. A world full of intrigue and danger; Laila won't ever want to go back since, thanks to three peculiar fairies, she will experience an intense, exciting journey there.
