Everybody in the Novell family (mother, father, son, daughter, uncle, cousins) has problems with their eyes – they have terrible sight! So when a cat comes into their lives it all gets very complicated, one by one and without fail they accidentally sit on him, or give him too much food. It's a disaster! But a disaster that makes you laugh non-stop, and with a happy end for everybody, especially the cat called Pillow. Why is this book so enchanting? 1. Because it's an illustrated book that makes you laugh out loud; 2. Because it encourages confidence through humour; 3. Because the end is surprising and wonderful; and 4. Because it makes us think why we should care for and respect animals.
