Swift and Brainy need you! Their mission in Egypt is full of puzzles, riddles, hieroglyphics and... dangers! Can you help them escape the pyramid safe and sound? Will you get the Super Reasoners medal? Developing the necessary skills to successfully solve the problems and complex situations that arise in our daily lives from an early age is essential. This book puts into action everything necessary to develop these abilities, and to allow children to successfully overcome any type of difficulty, succeed in managing their own resources, improve their academic performance and increase their capacity for reasoning in order to accomplish achievements both small and great throughout their lives.
