This is the story about Marco, a nine year old boy who hates going to school. Why does he hate it? He says its because all manner of pixies, trolls, witches, zombies and vampires live there and they always manage to find a way to upset him. Even with the start of a new term, Marco still feels very much alone in the face of his enemies, but he will soon find some friends to share his adventures. Will Marco and his friends discover the truth about the monsters? BEWARE!!!! If you read this book at bedtime, don't forget to check under your pillow next day and above all, remember, that sometimes, things are not as they seem.
