Kat, Emma, Kibibi and Lilith are four girls who at first sight don't have much in common. But they are all royal witches and they must compete in the 118th Crown League. Each of them comes from a different country and hides a secret. But they are not the only ones. Their coven also includes Shin, the water master, who makes Kibbi's heart leap whenever she sees him. If they want to prove their courage, complete their tests and be crowned queens of their countries, they must put their differences aside and work as a team. Something which is not easy when many want to see them fail...
