Season: SPRING 2011

Three women full of anger at the world and at themselves, trapped in a life that is the opposite to ideal. Carmen, Rebeca and Susana all live lives they don't want. The three of them meet and distrust the others, although deep down they share more than they can imagine: Carmen cleans for Susana, who exploits her. Rebeca is a rebel who changed her name in order to break away from an excessively macho environment. But she has married a millionaire who, although she doesn't want to acknowledge it, is as macho as the rest of them. Susana is the super businesswoman: everything is perfect in her job and her marriage, until she discovers her husband is cheating on her in their own bed.
