Malaga, Barcelona, Paris, painting, Bohemia, passion, endless vitality... these are just a brief outline of the concepts which the intense, magnetic life of Pablo Picasso bring to mind. This reading narrates the artist's life through his portraits of the women he loved. The texts, written by specialist journalists in accessible language, are accompanied by numerous photographs, which make the reading experience more attractive and aid comprehension. Each book includes activities for reinforcing and broadening the cultural and linguistic knowledge acquired during reading.
