Jorge Juan Eiroa, the author of this book, recommends to all students of Prehistory the most complete and up-to-date Prehistory of the world. A global work, unique in the market, that offers an understanding of the appearance of man and his development in the world. Each chapter includes: a synopsis of the topic, summary, specific and general bibliographies, commentaries on web-based text sites, suggested practices and self-evaluation. It also has full-page colour and black and white maps, diagrams and charts for easier understanding. Prehistory of the World was conceived for the European Space for Higher Education, with the aim of complementing the assignments for Grades: Universal Prehistory, Prehistory of Europe and Prehistory of the Iberian Peninsula.
